

BOSTON. GLOVE

What People

27446

From Marathon Winner

To the Editor—The eloquent and generous plea for the relief of my country, Greece, which your able sportswriters have conveyed to your readers, is bearing fruit. Mayors of numerous Massachusetts cities and many other committees, including those of my own people, have made offers of immediate support of my special plea for Greece.

The people of Greece are everlastingly grateful to the people of your magnanimous country.

STYLIANOS KYRIAKIDES.
Hotel Minerva, Boston.