

OLD MARATHON FAVORITES AND TWO NEWCOMERS who are prepared to pound the 26 miles, 385 yards of pavement in tomorrow's B.A.A. grind. The old favorites are (starting at the top from left to right) Don Heinicke of Baltimore, Stylianos Kyriakides of Greece, defending champion; Charley Robbins of Hartford, Ted Vogel of Tufts and the B.A.A., and the consistent Johnny Kelley of West Acton. At the bottom, the string continues with Ab Morton of Galt, Ont. (left) and Lloyd Bairstow of Lawrence (center). The lower right is reserved for the new faces of Finland's distance stars, Vaino Muionen and Mikko Hietanen.
