

Athens, May 27th, 1938

Dear Mr. Hamilton,

I have returned here on the 13th inst., and started immediately my work.

I have immediately reported to the General Manager of our Company and to all the Officials of our organization and particularly to Mr. J. Dontopoulos, the wonderful reception you extended to me while in New York. This information has pleased all of them very much.

I now desire to take this opportunity of expressing to you and to the Westinghouse Electric International Co. my sincere thanks and appreciation for all the splendid courtesies extended to me in New York. Permit me dear Mr. Hamilton to tell you that I have never expected such magnificent reception as the one extended to me. I have spent with you the most pleasant moments of my life.

Your politeness to extend to an employee of the Athens Power Co. so many courtesies, has appealed to me and appreciated it immensely. Wherever I am, I do not let the opportunity go without pointing out this attitude of your Company, and have given interviews to all leading Sporting and other Papers of Athens where I have particularly pointed out the sporting spirit which exists in the Westinghouse organization.

I have no words to express to you how I feel after your reception. Your gesture has touched me immensely. I have appreciated the sporting spirit of your organization and of the American people. This trip has given me the opportunity of verifying the reasons why America is always leader in every athletic meeting. The Olympic games is another proof of it.

I shall feel extremely obliged to you dear Mr. Hamilton, if you will be so kind as to express my sincerest thanks and appreciation to the Manager of your Company, to Mr. C.B. Perry, to Mr. E.H. Hargrove, to all of whom I am writing separately.

I only hope that you will give me an opportunity of reciprocating your kindness and favours when you visit Athens in the future and shall only eagerly watch of such an opportunity.

Again thanking you, and with my best wishes for your prosperity and health,

Very sincerely yours.

S. KYRIAKIDES.
