Wikipedia Education Program

Imagine a world
in which every single human being
can freely share
in the sum of all human knowledge.

Πολιτική

“Readers must be able to check that Wikipedia articles are not just made up. This means that all quotations and any material challenged or likely to be challenged must be attributed to a reliable, published source using an inline citation.” \(WP:VERIFY\)

“When available, academic and peer-reviewed publications, scholarly monographs, and textbooks are usually the most reliable sources.” \(WP:RELIABLE\)
