

ASK HIM IF HE HAS A WORD FOR IT

(AP Photo)

Introducing Stylianos Kyriakides, from Greece, where the marathon got its start. You might think he was training to be a first baseman with all that stretching, but he merely is giving the old Greek demonstration of how to limber up marathoning legs. He will try it out again next Tuesday when he joins the field in the Hopkinton to Boston B. A. A. grind.