

One true representative from the land which originated marathons, Greece sends Stylianos Kyriakides, champion distance runner from Athens, to the annual B. A. A. run to be held next Tuesday, Patriots' Day. Kyriakides is pictured limbering up his legs after his long boat trip.