

Marathon Champion To Race in Norway

Marathon champion Stylianos Kyriakides has a busy schedule ahead of him. He will rest today, attend a reception and dance in his honor at the Ritz Plaza tomorrow night, and spend the next month touring New York and New England enlisting aid for his country.

Next month he will go to Norway at the expense of the Norwegian government as one of two Greek representatives in the European championships.