

FOOTNOTE TO BOSTON MARATHON VICTORY

Some over-zealous souvenir hunter lessened the joy of Stylianos Kyriakides in his hour of triumph yesterday. While the Greek victor was talking with well-wishers and reporters the 'collector' walked off with his sweatshirt. Kyriakides prizes his sweatshirt which bears the Greek letters of his home club in Athens. He'd like to take it home with him. The new "owner" can make him very happy by bringing or mailing the sweatshirt to George Demeter at the Hotel Minerva.
