

Wally Young Enters Marathon Globe Board Votes for Kelley

By JERRY NASON

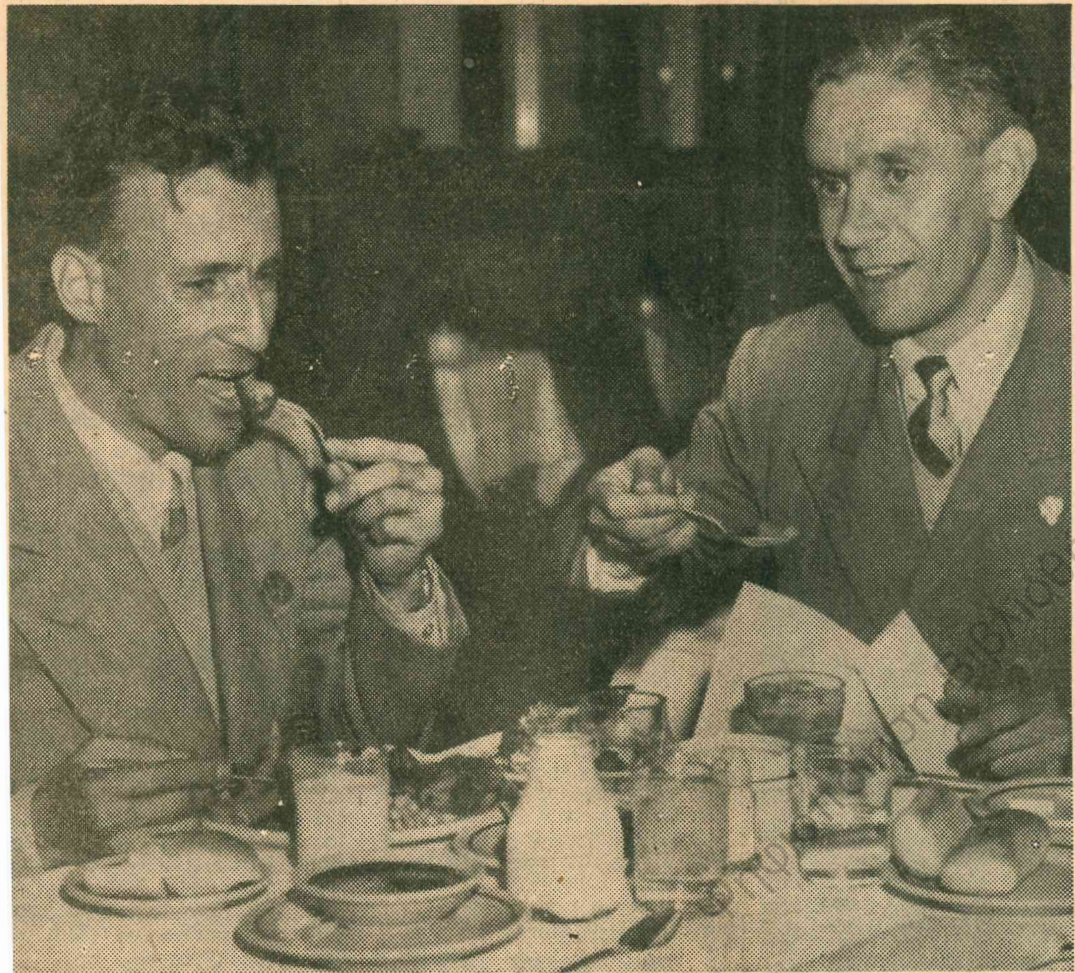

The Boston A. A. gentry was busy yesterday cleaning up the last-minute details of policing the Marathon course tomorrow when—waddaya know!—a cop walked into the race.

He would be the long-gaited Montreal constable, Walter Young, winner of the event in 1937, third two semesters later, and since that day a complete stranger to these parts.

Young entered by wire. What kept him, I dunno, since he wrote to this department two months ago and intimated that he'd be back for another gallop along the pike where, a decade ago, he swapped the lead 16 times with John Kelley, then shuffled away from John in the vicinity of Coolidge Corner.

Conditioned on Snowshoes

This makes seven former winners in the fold. The only absentee among the champs of the past 10 years is Leslie Pawson, the Paw-

ILLING UP—Stylianos Kyriakides and Athanios Ragazos, Greek Marathoners, get their stomachs full in preparation for tomorrow's run.
