

Massachusetts resident Stephen Auslander, age 10, top photo, displays his drawing for the Hopkinton Board of Selectmen in April, 2008. Tim Kilduff, Hopkinton Athletic Association president, above, surprises Stephen with the news that his artwork will become part of the permanent collection of the Flame of the Marathon Run Museum in Marathon, Greece. Stephen's drawing depicted the statue of Stylianos Kyriakides, right, located at the one-mile mark on the Boston Marathon route in Hopkinton, MA.
