OLYMPIA 1936 — Band II

Bild Nr. 23

Gruppe 61

Es ist zum Schießen...!, denkt der italienische Athlet, und er lacht sich halbtot, wenn Singh, der Langstreckenläufer aus Indien, mit Sorgfalt und Ruhe seinen Turban bindet

Das Werk „Olympia 1936“ ist in zwei Bände aufgeteilt. Band I enthält eine spannende Schilderung der herrlichen olympischen Wettkämpfe in Garmisch-Partenkirchen, einen Rückblick auf die Olympischen Spiele seit 1896 und eine Vorrede auf den Weltweit der Nationen in Berlin. Die Serie umfaßt 175 Bilder, eingeteilt in die vier Bildergruppen 53–56.

Band II bringt den Bericht über die einzigartigen olympischen Erlebnisse von Berlin in 200 Bildern, die sich auf die fünf Bildergruppen 57–61 verteilen.

Ganzseitige Hauptillustrationen in Bunt- und Schwarz-Weiß, eingetragene Textzeichnungen, statistische Zeichnungen, Zusammenfassungen sowie ein dem I. Band beigegebenes vierseitiger Plan von Berlin mit dem Reichssportfeld und des übrigen Kampfgebietes, geschnitten die beiden einhellig in blauem Leinen eingebundenen Bände zu einem repräsentativen Wert von hervorragender sportlicher Bedeutung.

Eine Schilderung der X. Olympischen Spiele von Los Angeles und der III. Olympischen Winterspiele in Lake Placid finden Sie in Werk 6 unseres Bilderdienstes „Olympia 1932“ mit den Bilderguppen 19–23, das in demselben Format und Aufmachung dem Werk „Olympia 1936“ angepaßt ist.

Da bis jetzt von uns herausgegebenen Sammelwerke sind auf der Rückseite unserer Bilderschecks aufgeführt

BERLIN LESSONS FOR BRITISH ATHLETES

FINLAND'S TRIUMPHS IN LONG-DISTANCE RACES

BY THE END OF the Berlin Olympic Games, it is probable that the British athletes will have learned a few lessons from the Finns. The Finns have shown that they are capable of winning long-distance races, and this is a lesson that the British athletes should take to heart. The Finns have won the 5000m, 10000m, and 20000m races, and this is a feat that has never been achieved before. The British athletes should take note of the Finns' training and preparation, and try to emulate their success.
