Dear Kyriakides—

Just a very hasty line to congratulate you most heartily on your really outstanding performance on Saturday in the marathon race.

The conditions must have been most difficult, as the fact that only 5 out of 41 starters survived clearly proves.

The account in this morning's "Times" pays you great compliments and I am sure they are all deserved. Bravo! Cyprus!

If you could meet me at 12 noon either tomorrow (Tues) or Wednesday outside the Piccadilly Hotel in Piccadilly, we could have a coffee and you could tell me all about it. I shall be most interested to hear it all - and your future plans.

I am sorry I could not see the race, but it was unavoidable.

Please drop me a card saying which day you can manage.

Yours sincerely,

W. C. Long
