Dear Mr. Kyriakides:

I have your letter of April 11th acknowledging mine of April 7th and appreciate very much receiving word from you advising me when you expect to be in New York. I shall be looking forward to seeing you on April 25th and sincerely hope that your stay with us in New York will prove interesting.

Again, allow me to express the hope that you will be successful in your athletic endeavors while in Boston.

Very sincerely yours,
