Dear Grovie Walker Heacock:

Your good wishes helped me to win your great Marathon, and also your inspiration from studying about Greece.

I finished eleventh in 1936 in the German Olympics, and hope to do better in 1948 in London.

Your friend,

Dear Jim Ayer:

Thank you and everybody in Form II for your wishes and prayers which, I know, were with me and helped me to win.

Your play sounds very fine. I wish I could be with you.

The Marathon Race was not easy. I had the strongest competition and the best runners in it.

I hope in years to come I may be able to buy back my house.

Your friend,

STYLIANOS KYRIAKIDES
