The Manager,
Apeco,
Athens, Greece.

Dear Sir,

Though you must have heard the glad news I nevertheless take the liberty to announce to you by airmail that our good lad has won first place in the American Marathon race. I had the honour of meeting him personally at the Radio Station U.S.X. Salem Mass. U.S.A. We thank you for sending him here to honour our Country, Greece. Your efforts and money have not been in vain. Kyriakides's great efforts here for the relief of the poor in Greece will be seconded by the Greeks in America.

Stylios Kyriakides

My friend Miss Kassiani Panopoulou, 91, Ralli Street, Piraeus, will bring you newspapers from which you will learn details (of Kyriakides' success).

Sincerely yours,

(signed) Leonidas J. Constant,
