Dear Lana,

You must be wondering what has happened to me! My life in the past few months has been absorbed once more by the Cyprus problem in its current form, almost to the exclusion of all else. At last I have finished going through your text and am returning it with my revisions. Please forgive the mess. I'm afraid I always do this when I re-read.

Your Notes were most helpful and I am grateful to you. Please do not hesitate to point out anything else you think is not balanced or should be improved. I also enclose a Table of Contents which may be useful as an overview.

Please, please let me love you interim account, as it would make me feel a little better for having been so
