

THE BRITISH DOMINIONS BEYOND THE SEAS.—No. XXI.: CYPRUS.

DRAWN BY R. CATON WOODVILLE.

THE BRITISH OCCUPATION OF CYPRUS: THE BASHI-BAZOUKS EVACUATING THE ISLAND.

On July 10, 1878, in terms of the Anglo-Turkish Convention, in devising which, at the Berlin Conference, the diplomacy of Lord Beaconsfield played so important a part, Cyprus was occupied by the British. In 1882 a constitution, with an elected council, was granted to the island.
